Qualified Dividend Income

Qualified dividend income (“QDI”) is taxed at the lower long-term capital gain rates. The mutual fund may pass through any QDI it receives from stocks in the fund’s portfolio. QDI is reported to you on Form 1099-DIV, Box 1b. The QDI amount in Box 1b will only apply to you if you have held the fund for more than 60 days during the 121-day period beginning 60 days before the fund’s ex-dividend date of the distribution. To assist you in determining whether you have met this holding period requirement, the ex-dividend dates for our equity funds are listed in the chart below.

Please keep in mind that due to the beneficial tax rate changes affecting both qualifying dividends and capital gains, you will need to complete the Qualified Dividends and Capital Gain Tax Worksheet in the Instructions for Form 1040 to compute your taxes.

City National Rochdale Fund	Dates for Ordinary Income (OI) and Short Term Capital Gain Distribution (ST)
Intermediate Fixed Income Fund	(OI) March 26, June 25, September 25, December 28
Multi-Asset Fund	(OI) March 26, June 25, September 25, December 28

The reduced tax rate on dividends does not apply to bond, tax exempt or money market investments.

Foreign Tax Credit and Foreign Source Income

The Emerging Markets Fund qualified for and elected to pass through foreign tax credits to its shareholders. Accordingly, you are entitled to claim a foreign tax credit or take an itemized deduction on your federal income tax return for your share of the taxes indicated in Box 6 of your 2015 Form 1099-DIV. Refer to IRS Publication 514, Foreign Tax Credit for Individuals, for additional information.

To be eligible to claim a foreign tax credit, you must have held your shares for more than 15 days within a 31-day period. The 31-day period begins 15 days before the shares become ex-dividend date. The ex-dividend date for the fund potentially impacted by this provision is December 28, 2015. Thus the 31-day period began on December 13, 2015 and ended on January 12, 2016. If you are unable to use the foreign tax credit, you still may be able to claim the amount as an itemized deduction.
